The top banks in Russia are:

Sberbank

Sberbank is a state-owned bank and is headquartered in Moscow. Established in 1841, the bank provides financial services to retail and corporate clients in Russia. It is also present in 22 countries, serving 145.6 million clients and employing 325,000 staff. It manages 14 regional banks in Russia, 79 regional bank branches, and 15,016 branches.

As of 2016, total assets of the bank were US$443.20 billion and net profit was US$94.67 billion.

VTB Bank

Founded in 1990, VTB Bank is one of the primary commercial banks in Russia and operates in OECD and other countries. The bank operates through five segments: Corporate-Investment Banking, Mid-Corporate Banking, Retail Business, Treasury, and Other Business. Based in Moscow, it employs around 95,000 individuals.

Currently, VTB oversees 40 full service branches in Russia, as well as 13 bank subsidiaries, three representative offices, two VTB branches, and two VTB Capital branches in other countries.

As of 2016, the bank's total assets amounted to US$219.86 billion and net profit reached US$900 million.

Gazprombank (GPB)

GPB started its operations in 1990. The bank was founded by Gazprom, the world's largest gas producer and exporter. It operates out of Moscow and serves over 45,000 corporate clients and five million private clients.

In 2016, the bank reported total assets of US$85.24 billion and a net profit of US$300 million.

Arinteg schrijft dat het projecten heeft gedraaid bij de volgende 'staatsbanken' Vnesheconombank (VEB.RF, or VEB), Promsvyazbank en dochter Sviaz-Bank,

Nog onduidelijk wat deze zijn: Bank Trust is dat hetzelfde als de National Bank Trust? en Project Finance Bank

En de private Alfa Bank

De directeur zegt "Also significant for us was the commissioning of a software and hardware complex for one-way information transfer in one of the largest banks in the Russian Federation. We have certified this solution at FSTEC and are piloting it in several large companies."
