Je hoeft geen complotdenker te zijn om twijfels te hebben bij het gangbare vertoog over de oorlog in Oekraïne. Voor Buro Jansen & Janssen was en is Rusland een dictatuur sinds de aanslagen in 2004 in Beslan of misschien zelfs eerder. Rusland is in de huidige oorlog opnieuw duidelijk de agressor en pleegt op grote schaal oorlogsmisdaden.

Toch is het belangrijk om vragen te blijven stellen, net als bij elke crisis. De vragen die wij nu onder andere stellen is waarom Europa en de Verenigde Staten Rusland hebben geholpen met de militaire opbouw van Rusland. Ook na de bezetting van de Krim is de export naar Rusland niet aan banden gelegd. En waarom worden overtredingen van die sancties niet onderzocht of worden bedrijven die die overtredingen hebben begaan niet stevig aangepakt en fors veroordeeld?

Er worden in de verzamelde berichten verschillende voorbeelden genoemd. Een bedrijf, het Franse Thalens, heeft een paar jaar geleden nog het Nederlandse Gemalto overgenomen. Vraag is dan natuurlijk als Thalens genoemd wordt, wat is de rol van Gemalto?

Buro Jansen & Janssen heeft in 2021 een onderzoek over Fox-IT in Rusland gepubliceerd. Het onderzoek roept de vraag op of Fox-IT de sancties heeft overtreden. Onderzoek zal niet volgen en vergunningen zullen niet strenger worden beoordeeld, dit heeft Buro Jansen & Janssen namelijk in 2020 middels een onderzoek aangetoond.

Het lijkt erop dat de oorlog de Europese Unie en de Verenigde Staten eigenlijk goed uitkomt. Het heeft de kas in het verleden gespekt door Rusland te steunen en nu kunnen overheden goede sier maken door Oekraïne te steunen. Erg wrang is het wel, maar oorlog lijkt het perfecte verdienmodel.

Op nieuwsblog verzamelt Buro Jansen & Janssen artikelen over de export van wapens naar Rusland en de overtredingen van de sancties tegen Rusland. Hier kunt u zien welke artikelen wij hebben verzameld.
